

In the United States, people live in cities, suburban areas, and in small towns or more rural settings. Discuss which the best place is to live and why.

Small town life offers closer relationships with neighbors, a slower pace of life, and a lower cost of living.

In the United States, people live in cities, suburban areas, and in small towns or more rural settings. Discuss which the best place is to live and why.

Living in a big city has many headaches, especially traffic.

Early on in life people develop an admiration for heroes. In a well-developed essay, discuss a person you admire and why you chose that person.

Babe Ruth played baseball from 1914 until 1935.

Early on in life people develop an admiration for heroes. In a well-developed essay, discuss a person you admire and why you chose that person.

Babe Ruth is the greatest baseball player of all time because he hit lots of home runs, was adored by fans, and was charismatic.

Discuss the immigrant experience in the early part of the 1900s.

The experience for immigrants in the early 1900s was difficult characterized by economic hardship, cultural loss, and discrimination.

Discuss the immigrant experience in the early part of the 1900s.

Immigrants came to the U.S. through Ellis Island and Angel Island in the early 1900s.

Discuss the social, political, and economic effects of World War II on the United States.

World War II not only affected the economy of the United States, but also altered the role of the American government and the American people forever.

Discuss the social, political, and economic effects of World War II on the United States.

World War II was a costly war that had a major impact on the economy of the United States.